Carroll Nichols, a young man well known in Morrisville, has secured the position of receiving clerk with the Callender, McAslan & Troup Co., of the Boston Store, Providence, R. I., one of the largest wholesale and retail department stores in the country. Mr. Nichols is the grandson of Mrs. S. H. Phelps, one of Morrisville's older citizens.

Charles Kellogg of Boston has been in town for a few days, the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. H. Slayton. He came for the purpose of packing and shipping the household goods of his father, Rev. G. N. Kellogg, to Boston, where the family will reside. Rev. Mr. Kellogg and family will remain at Rye Beach as long as the weather continues pleasant. The many friends of Miss Nellie will be pleased to learn that her health has been much improved during her stay at the beach.

J. L. Hovey of Wheelock has purchased of Murry Buck the Malvern stock farm on Laporte road, the consideration being $10,000. The trade was consummated last week through the agency of J. H. Atchinson. The farm was owned for several years by Mr. Malvern of New York city and was especially fitted up as a stock farm. Later it was sold to C. R. Page of this place, who for many years made a specialty of raising and dealing in fine horses. On account of Mr. Page's poor health the farm was transferred to Mr. Buck, who has lived there until the present time. Mr. Hovey will take possession very soon.

W. W. Delano, the tea man, was in Johnson on business to-day.

W. R. Messer left Monday for a business trip, which will take him through several different points in lower Canada. He will be absent about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Doty start Oct. 20 for California. They expect to be absent until spring and if the climate agrees with Mr. Doty they will spend most of the time in Southern California. On the return trip they are planning to visit several points of interest and will stop some time at Colorado Springs.

We have located L. B. Boynton and as usual find him on the hustle. He is now in Buffalo, N. Y., and in the past two weeks has shipped 17 carloads of peaches and grapes, or over 7000 baskets. All but one of this number of cars have come to Vermont and have been shipped over the St. J. and L. C. road.

The wooden bridge below the Addison Hill farm on the Laporte road, has been taken down and a new steel bridge will be erected in its place. I. N. LeBaron is now at work on the foundation. This work blocks the traffic over the Laporte road and makes it necessary that all travel between Morrisville and Stowe should go over the Randolph road for the present.

Fourteen Morrisville people accepted an invitation from Eli Gile to participate in a corn roast, given within his domains the first of the week. Those fortunate enough to attend one of these gatherings presided over by Mr. Gile will be aware of his qualities as an entertainer. A large stone arch built expressly for these occasions added much to the enjoyment of the same. The party in question report one of the best times of the season.

George E. More is making extensive repairs on his building occupied by J. F. Thomas' grocery store on Portland street. A front will be built on and the windows made larger, which will make practically a glass front. Many modern improvements will be made on the interior of the basement over the store and a bay window added on the front side. The entrance to the tenement will be changed from the side to the front of the building.

Postmaster H. J. Fisher has received permission to change the location of the postoffice to the new Drowne block, which will be done in about ten days, as soon as the new room is completed. The new postoffice will have a floor space of 20 by 54 feet. Four new tables with racks and stools for the rural carriers will be furnished. All the mail and papers from the two offices will be carried to the rear door, a feature which will be much appreciated by the public.

Latest From The Capital.

Latest report from Montpelier received as we go to press, estimates McCullough's majority as upwards of fifty votes. John H. Merrifield was elected Speaker by a majority of 80.

T. C. Cheney was re-elected for Clerk of the House by a good majority. His name was presented by C. H. A. Stafford, Morrisville's representative. Mr. Stafford's presentation speech is very highly spoken of.

State Sunday-School Convention.

Oct. 21, 22, and 23 are the dates for the State Sunday-school convention. Communication has been received from Rev. G. L. Story, Sec'y of State Sunday-school Ass'n., stating that the programs for the annual convention are soon to be issued. It is expected that this convention will be one of the best. The people of Morrisville can be depended upon to look well to the entertainment of this convention. Committees have been appointed and are making due arrangements for it.

Good Thing Coming.

The people of Morrisville and vicinity are to have an opportunity to listen to a rare treat in an entertainment by the Alonzo Hatch Electro Photo Musical Co. They appear at Town Hall in Morrisville, Oct. 10, under the auspices of the Cong'l church society.

Prof. S. C. Kimm, Ph. D., Middleburgh, N. Y., says:—"The two greatest features of this entertainment, cleanliness and instructiveness, make it an excellent educational affair."

Local W. C. T. U.

Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 2:30 p. m., in the Congregational church parlors the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its regular monthly meeting. Following is the program: Devotional exercises, consisting of singing, scripture quotations by each, and prayer. Receiving new members. Singing, reading of the constitution by M. A. Smith, signing pledge, receiving white ribbon.

Address of welcome by President, Mrs. W. S. Daniels. Prayer, Mrs. C. A. Patten. Singing. Report of state meeting by delegates. Necessary business. W. C. T. U. benediction.

Each member should try and be present as this is the only opportunity for hearing the state report. Each member that has joined the union this summer is especially invited to be present. All are urged to be prompt at 2:30. Honorary members and all who are interested in temperance are cordially invited.

Announcements of the approaching marriage of Elmer P. Grant and Miss Martha H. Hamilton, one of Rome's, (Ia.) estimable young ladies, have been received here. Mr. Grant is a grandson of the late A. P. Smalley. The event occurs Thursday, Oct. 16.

Gov. Woodbury was in town a short time Monday and called on his old school-master, Judge Sherwin, who taught school at Morrisville Corners in 1851, and had "Urban" as one of his scholars at that time. Of the people who lived at the Corners then the Judge says there is now but one still there, John Carlton, who was also one of his scholars.

Chas. Willey and Will Houghton of Wolcott, spent a few days recently at Sheriff Robbins' hotel. Willey was charged with selling liquor; he was fined, the sum with costs amounting to about $50, which he had. Houghton's crime was intoxication, and his fine and costs were $17.74, or twenty days in jail. He expects his friends to come to his aid.

A special village meeting is called for Monday evening, Oct. 6. There are a lot of important matters to be considered and it behooves every village taxpayer to be present. The village expenses are matters of special importance to every taxpayer, and all matters pertaining to village affairs should be closely scrutinized by them. Be sure to attend this meeting.

Monday evening as Will Davis was "biking" down Main Street, a sudden explosion caused the young man to alight without much ceremony, he thinking the tire of his machine had burst. To all appearance everything thereabouts was o. k.; upon further investigation he found he had run over an electric light globe which caused the explosion, making a loud report and startling the neighborhood.
